Driven by sustainability

Our Journey of Evolution

Sustainability is not a self-fulfilling prophecy. It is the “new normal” for modern businesses, a journey of evolution to drive a meaningful change, which is paramount to long term moral and economic imperatives.

Our Sustainability Mission

To Motivate, Ideate and Delegate business transformations by using less physical resources to gain more benefit.

Our Sustainability Vision

To trigger and empower Sustainable and Sound Decisions in order to create ripples of Responsible Actions.

Sustainability and renewability have become common terms in the modern corporate vocabulary that translate a range of activities into a single, cohesive impulse: to minimize the effect that business operations have on the local environment.

To become future fit, it is a must to practise sustainable business strategies by achieving more with less resources in order to restore nature's balance, while aiming to convert the cost centers to revenue centers.

Sustainability navigates the eugenics of the business in the right direction, through motivation, innovation and association. The catalyzed engagement in creating sustainable value has always been the foundation of AIG's modus operandi.

AIG aims to drive and motivate its staff and associates to adapt to a more sustainable business paradigm through shared responsibility. Sustainability is everyone's deliverable. Its success fuels its own journey while projecting a silver lining for the larger community and for all the brands we have and we represent.

AMIT International Group aspires to be positioned as a sustainable brand and organization. In order to attain this milestone, the business focuses on shifting behavior to responsible decisions & actions, diffusing novel ideas into various processes, while continuing business-as-usual.

Under the identity Zero Responsibility, AMIT International Group has initiated multifaceted efforts in its internal and external day-to-day operations, to make a difference for the better.

Zero Responsibility is to 'Think, Act & Protect' as an organization. As a part of this sustainability drive, AIG encourages and exercises avoiding single-use-plastics through Employee Engagement, CSR, Communications, forging Allies & Key Partnerships, and Customer Service.

The initiative is a proactive step towards being an ambidextrous organization with a holistic and symbiotic transformation in Innovation and Sustainability front.

Our Sustainability Identity:

ZERO
RESPONSIBILITY

THINK. ACT. PROTECT.

Driven by determination

Shaping our future

With four decades of magnificent and adventurous journey, AMIT International Group (AIG) looks forward to continue delivering Outstanding customer-focused, bespoke services and solutions with energy and resource efficiency in developing People, Process and Technology across the globe.

In order to attain this objective, it is important to harness a determination-driven energy and focus on adapting to the challenges of the future. AIG being a multi-faceted organization, must navigate and invest towards approach like Ethical Design Thinking and Block Chain Technology to outline the future and go beyond individual-centric approach to Community-centric Value Proposition (CVP).

Transformation is constant, and AMIT International Group aims to be driven consistently and continuously to induce ripples of Positive Customer Experience.
